

IN THE MATTER OF

* BEFORE THE

PAUL S. DIMARCO
Appellant

* HOWARD COUNTY

* BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. BA 722-D

ADMINISTRATIVE DISMISSAL

As Board of Appeals Case No. 722-D has been on the Unscheduled Docket since March 28, 2017, and in accordance with Section 100.1.3. of the Howard County Zoning Regulations which states:

"After 180 cumulative days, an inactive petition shall be dismissed by the Hearing Authority"
it is this 23rd day of October, 2018, by the Howard County Board of Appeals ORDERED:

That the above-captioned Board of Appeals Case No. 722-D, Paul S. DiMarco is hereby DISMISSED.

ATTEST:

Ann Nicholson, Secretary

James Howard, Chairperson

Absent AT TIME OF SIGNING
Neveen H. Kurtom, Vice Chairperson

APPROVED AS TO FORM:
HOWARD COUNTY OFFICE OF LAW
GARY W. KUC
COUNTY SOLICITOR

Barry Sanders, Esq.
Asst. County Solicitor

John Lederer

Steven Hunt

Bill Santos

Howard County Board of Appeals

George Howard Building
3430 Court House Drive
Ellicott City, Maryland 21043-4392

May 9, 2017

Sang Oh, Esq.
Talkin & Oh, LLP
5100 Dorsey Hall Drive
Ellicott City, MD 21042-7870

Dear Mr. Oh:

RE: BA 722-D, Paul DiMarco

On March 28, 2017, BA 722-D, Paul DiMarco, was placed on the Unscheduled Docket pursuant to your request of March 28th. Please note that Section 100.0.I of the Zoning Regulations requires the Hearing Authority to dismiss an inactive petition placed on its "hearings unscheduled" docket after 180 cumulative days. This letter therefore provides notice that BA 722-D, Paul DiMarco, shall be dismissed 180 days from March 28, 2017, if it remains on the inactive docket.

Sincerely,

Steven Hunt, Chairperson
Howard County Board of Appeals

cc: Barry Sanders, Esq.