6:33 p.m. Board reconvened the hearing from May 28th - opposition continued their case. Sara Via continued her presentation with a power point presentation

Opposition Witnesses:

- Sara Via, 4811 Manor Lane
- Yovanda Brooks, 4918 Manor Lane
- Harry Hoffman, 4815 Manor Lane
- Verity Weston-Truby , 4821 Manor Lane
- Jim Truby, 4821 Manor Lane

Opposition Exhibits:

- 6 – PowerPoint Presentation of Ms. Via with certain slides marked “Not Admitted”
- 7 – PowerPoint presented by Ms. Brooks.
- 8 – Map showing “Typical Open Section Street Connection Engineering Access Permits” and Excerpt from the Maryland State Highway Access Manual

9:16 p.m. Chairman Howard asked for clarification of the PowerPoint testimony and requested that counsel for the Petitioner be given an opportunity to review the printed copy of the PowerPoint. Board expressed opinion the data was interpreted and therefore it was a report. Mr. Meachum argued that a postponement should be allowed in order to allow Mr. Truby to provide the “report” and data to counsel for the Petitioner.

Chairman Howard agreed to postpone the Hearing pending providing the report and data to Petitioner’s counsel and the proposed slide.

9:40 p.m. Board adjourned.
Case to be continued to a date to be determined
