You are receiving this letter because you signed up at a previous hearing before the Zoning Board in this case. Because of health and safety concerns related to the coronavirus, the next hearing for ZB 1119M will not be held in person; rather, this hearing will be held as a WebEx event, an internet web-based hearing, on June 3, 2020 @ 6 p.m. In order to participate, you must register at the following link: <https://cc.howardcountymd.gov/Zoning-Land-Use/Zoning-Board>. You will receive an e-mail once you register providing information how to participate in the WebEx hearing by using either a computer to view the hearing or your phone to listen to the hearing. This hearing will be available to be viewed on the County Council website several days after the hearing at <https://cc.howardcountymd.gov/Online-Tools/Watch-Us>.

Please note that the Petitioner's case is completed and at this point in the process, the opposition will be presenting their case. Only those persons that have signed up previously will be permitted to testify. Any proposed exhibits that a presenter plans to submit to the Zoning Board during their testimony must be electronically submitted in advance to RRegner@howardcountymd.gov by 5/29/20 @ noon.

As a preliminary matter at the June 3rd hearing, the Zoning Board will consider a Motion for Continuance filed by Alan Schwartz, counsel for the Opposition and the Opposition to Motion for Continuance filed by Sang Oh, counsel for the Petitioner. The Zoning Board will then determine if they will forward with the hearing on June 3 or postpone the hearing to a future date. June 10 @ 6 p.m. is currently being held as a possible continuation date.
