Council to Hold Public Safety Issue Briefing with Community Stakeholders

Ellicott City, MD – The Howard County Council is continuing its series of issue briefing sessions with community stakeholders. Each session will begin with short presentations by a panel of representatives from government agencies and partner organizations. The presentations will be followed by questions from Council Members and discussion between the panel and Council.

This session will focus on Public Safety and will be held at 1:30 p.m. on Monday, February 25. Panelists for this session will include representatives from the Howard County Police Department, Fire and Rescue Services, Department of Corrections, Sheriff's Department, and State's Attorney office.

Additional upcoming briefing sessions will focus on Arts and Community Cultures. If you have missed a previous session, they are available on the Council's website.

All the issue briefing sessions will be open to the public and streamed online. The sessions will be held in the Banneker Room in the George Howard Building, 3430 Court House Drive, Ellicott City, 20143. Details on future sessions will be announced as they are confirmed.
