Variance Petition Criteria

That there are unique physical conditions, including irregularity, narrowness or shallowness of lot or shape, exceptional topography, or other existing features peculiar to the particular lot; and that as a result of such unique physical conditions, practical difficulties or unnecessary hardships arise in complying strictly with the bulk provisions of these Regulations.

The lot is very narrow and parallelogram shaped, with the house built closely into one corner of the lot.

That the variance, if granted, will not alter the essential character of the neighborhood or district in which the lot is located; will not substantially impair the appropriate use or development of adjacent property; and will not be detrimental to the public welfare.

The garage will be built to match the house with vinyl siding and will resemble all of the surrounding houses. It will not impair the use or development of any adjacent property as they are already developed. The nearest lots are 8490 (a similar residence) and the very back end parking area of 8651 Old Annapolis Road (the Garden Presbyterian Church). There are several large evergreen trees on the property line. No trees will be removed when the garage will be built.

That such practical difficulties or hardships have not been created by the owner provided, however, that where all other required findings are made, the purchase of a lot subject to the restrictions sought to be varied shall not itself constitute a self-created hardship.

The position of the house close to the the corner of the narrow lot was pre-existing. This was not a self-created hardship.

That within the intent and purpose of these Regulations, the variance, if granted, is the minimum variance necessary to afford relief.

Yes, The attached garage structure will be built no closer to the property line than 4 feet 4 inches. The request for the additional 5 foot 8 inches will provide the necessary relief to build the 28x18 attached garage.

That no variance be granted to the minimum criteria established in Section 131.0 for Conditional Uses except where specifically provided therein or in an historic district. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the granting of variances in any zoning district other than to the minimum criteria established in Section 131.0.

No historical/conditional use requested.
